Managers Corner

Happy New Year,

I would like to keep this up beat if possible. The community has been keeping up very well with the residents and families who have been having a difficult time either with death or with illnesses. Residents in need.

I know everyone was worried and concerned the time, effort and money being spent on one resident was too much or would prove to be frugal. I must report that resident is doing better, coming along and making progress. I want to thank you all for your work and dedication to helping give this resident a leg up, and proving to her there are people who do care and will follow through.

I think the decorations at the Clubhouse and in the Community are spectacular! Great Job! But you guys always do a good job. You are professionals. You all are so special!

Now on to other things.

- It is disturbing to me to know that when some of you are driving the community. You see me and I see you! You know you are going too fast in the community that you still do not slow down. Do you need to hurt or kill someone in order to slow down? So the Man in the black truck who lives in the cul de sac at Lake Griffin, YOU GO TOO FAST! For those of you who know you drive too fast. When you hurt someone, you will be sorry, are you going to slow down then?
- Police are coming in to monitor the speeders in the park and hand out tickets and look for those different violations.
- CATS - 3 down 25 to go! Keep calling it in and we will respond.

- DO NOT paint your home any, any any color with out approval from the office.
 - 360 Inspections will begin in January and then you will be able to see what is needed.
 - Please stay off the grass when parking
 - Please STOP FEEDING THE STRAY CATS
- Please be safe, be well and have a great 2019! Happy Holidays from Nina, Danny and Myself.

Linda

Our annual Home Owners is going to be on January 8, 2019 at 7:00 pm. We need to have 84 homes represented at the meeting in order to conduct business.

One of the things on the agenda will be the "Wish List". Please be in writing the items you wish to be done/added to the park. Also if you have any concerns you need to bring them in writing to the meeting or be prepared to write them when you get here.

Now down to some important business: It has been brought to the attention of the Home Owners Association that someone in the park was bitten by one of the stray cats. This resident had to be taken to Urgent Care and was given 2 shots and some antibiotics. Then it got worse and she had to go back as it got infected and she had to have IV antibiotics. The cat was caught and was picked up by animal control and quarantined. We are still waiting to hear whether it has rabies or not,, but it does have Scabies (mange). Which if this cat has Scabies (Mange) the other stray cats probably do too. For those of you that are feeding the cats: We have pictures of your house and the plates and bowls of food and they are being turned over to Management. Residents are tired of having cats use their flower beds for a litter box. Also tired of them sitting on golf carts and on top of cars! Did you ever think about the people who are allergic to cats? Cat dander and hair are left on seats of golf carts and those allergic are affected.

Are you aware that we have a supportive organization called "FMO" (Florida Manufactured Organization). If you are not a member of this we really encourage you to join. The cost for this is $25.00 a year or $65.00 for 3 years. The FMO have lobbyist that to work for the FMO.

January Social Events

Here are a few things to start planning for:

Jan 1st	Social Club Meeting 7pm
Jan 8th (Tues)	Annual HOA meeting 7pm
Jan 17th (Thurs)	Birthday Bash 5 pm
Jan 18th (Fri)	Bill and Fran Fox Concert 7pm
Jan 19th (Sat)	Sewbirds fund raiser breakfast 9am
Jan 26th (Sat)	the clubhouse will be closed for private event

A big Thank You to Darrell and Diane for hosting the New Years Eve Party.

We as a community had a very good year over-all. I think there were a lot of fun activities, lots and lots of good food, and some good neighborly volunteer help provided. There were lots of new friendships that were made. It is our hope that we continue to truly enjoy our lives here at LST.

Please let any of the executive board of the Social Club know if you have ideas for new games, or events. It is our hope that all of you new residents become involved in our community.

There are several events coming up so Please make sure you check the kiosks and boards in the clubhouse for the details. Lots will be happening in February and March, please make sure you check on the boards in the clubhouse or the kiosks

Our next social club meeting will be February 5th at 7 pm.

Please try to attend these meetings and invite your neighbors.

ENTERTAINMENT

Darlene Stodola

The Glen Foster Comedy/Magic Show will be appearing at our Lakeside Terrace Clubhouse on Thursday, February 7th, 2019 at 7pm. Glen Foster's Show is promoted by Tin Pan Alley Productions and John Timpanelli.

Our entertainment committee of seven, unanimously chose Glen Foster after seeing a portion of his act during a Showcase of many professional performers. He had us all laughing and enjoying his show. We felt our community should really enjoy him.

Tickets will be available after January 7th. The ticket price is $10.00 for a 90 minute show. Sellers are the committee members: Debi Porterfield, Kathy Walden, Marge Bresimski, Darlene Stodola, Maryanna Foster, Lee Hayden, and Peg Aniol.

January 2019

Born in January

January is a busy birthday month for many at Lakeside Terrace. "We wish for you on your birthday, whatever you ask may you receive, whatever you seek may you find, whatever you wish may it be fulfilled on your birthday and always."

Happy Anniversary

BINGO!

Thanks to all who came to our Christmas Bingo night. It was a fun night with plenty of treats and prizes. Starting this January we will be reformatting our Bingo games to make them simpler and easier for the players. The games will be pre-packaged, with a couple of special games for added winnings. The biggest change will be the cost per package will be only $5.00 with the chance of winning your money back in one game. Our goal will also be to finish the games by 8:30 PM, to get you home early. Come and join the fun. Packages will be sold at 5:15PM with the games starting at 6 PM.

It's not your grandma's Bingo

Debbie Porterfield

A new game has been introduced to our community by Linda McMaster. It's called "It's Not Your Grandmother's Bingo ". We play on Friday nights at 6:30. You need to bring 4 nickels, 4 dimes, 4 quarters, and a dollar bill.

This game is played with decks of cards and is a lot of fun. The more people who play the bigger the pay out. Come join the fun!

Karen & Morris Mohler get ready to set sail at the annual LST Christmas Boat Parade

Residents celebrate the holidays at the Toys for kids luncheon.

Toys for Kids/ Caroling

Darlene Stodola

A huge thank you to all who participated in any way for the Sally Cannon Toys for Kids event and the LST park caroling. We always have fun at these events and spread the Christmas Spirit as well.

At the Toys for Kids event 96 people attended the party and many who couldn't also contributed toys, stuffed animals, and items for the food pantry. Lots of people helped make this another great evening.

Twenty LST residents turned out to sing Christmas Carols in the chilly air on December 12th. Even Frosty the Snowman made an appearance. Singers split into two groups and traveled from one home to another to bring the holiday spirit with Christmas carols. Afterwards a social was held in the clubhouse to warm up and enjoy each other's stories

Ron Grove
Park Representative

The next meeting is January 17 at Cypress Creek, 28944 Hubbard St. Leesburg. The topic will be Medicare, Medicaid and Social Security. Lunch is available at 12:30 and the meeting starts at 1:00. Guests are always welcome. Please consider joining this organization whose purpose is to protect us as mobile home owners. It's only $25 for a year or $65 for 3 years.

Lakeside Terrace Christmas Carolers

Piccadilly Ladies of the Lake

The Piccadilly Ladies of the Lake held their Christmas event at Francesco's in Baylee Plaza on December 10th. Even though the seating location that was promised was not available it turned out to be a joyous and festive occasion.

Millie Banfill was recognized for her December birthday. Others in attendance were: Shirley Hassom, Barb Forman, Lee Hayden, June Hoffert, Pam Stettinsh, Deb Ludwig, Darlene Stodola, Barb Stodola, Shirley Smith, Joanne Speas, Cheri Presley, Pat Voelker, Sue Greenwood, Maryanna Foster and Karen Keenan. Everyone enjoyed the gift exchange with many unique presents. A special Thank You to Shirley Hassom for the "grab bag" of Boyd's Bears.

The spirit of the Christmas season was further evidenced by an anonymous donor picking up the tab for everyone's meal. Our blessings are many during this special time of year.

Ladies of Leisure

Eighteen ladies of the community enjoyed the December luncheon at LaPalma on December 14th. Attending were: Sue Greenwood, Shirley Smith, Shirley Hassom, Deb Ludwig, Millie Banfill, Sue Mc Fadden, Marie Griffin, Dianne Henry, June Hoffert, Maryanna Foster, Marge Holthus, Joanne Speas, Geri Peasley, Sue Furry, Chery Miller, Kathy Walden and Karen Keenan.

Those who were unable to attend were missed. Thank you to those who notified me that they were unable to attend. In the future if you are signed up to attend and find you will be unable to do so, PLEASE let me know. This will prevent the entire group waiting to order expecting that more will be arriving and is more courteous for the restaurant staff as they have prepared for a specific number. Watch for postings for the January luncheon to be held on 1/11/2019.

March 17th-20th

Lakeside Terrace is planning a four day bus tour to New Orleans from March 17-20th. For only $319 this tour includes hotel accommodations, continental breakfasts, a professionally narrated tour of the city of New Orleans by a step on guide. After you have soaked up the scenery, history and its fascinating tales then its time to get the good times rolling down Bourbon street, shop, & enjoy a relaxing meal in one of their wonderful restaurants or even go gambling. The tour also includes a tour of the National Naval Aviation Museum in Pensacola and the USS Alabama. See the bulletin board in the club house for more detailed information. If interested in joining the tour sign up in the club house or contact Jean Mc Ferren at 352-728-1657. Since we need 40 persons for the trip to go, other parks have been invited to join us. So sign up early to reserve your seat on the tour.

A Reader's Corner

Carol Roberts

Hello and Happy New Year.

For a very short January reading list, I chose two books that I enjoyed very much; one was a Book Club choice, the other a Dayton Literary Peace Prize-nominee.

Billy Lynn's: Long Halftime Walkby Ben Fountain

Runner up for the Dayton (Ohio) Literary Peace Prize in 2013, this short novel tells the story of Bravo squad, a group of young soldiers between deployments in the Iraq war. They have been “recruited” for a stateside Victory Tour intended to reinvigorate support for the war by spotlighting their bravery in wartime. The novel focuses on their last appearance before their return to the Iraqi conflict. During this particular event, they will appear at Texas Stadium to be honored at halftime of a football game. The author introduces ten different characters, connecting them to various subplots that reflect the effects of their real wartime experiences. Some of the men of Bravo Squad cannot escape these effects, while others use the tour as a chance to capitalize on their status as “heroes” and to enjoy the benefits of this status, however briefly. The focus on Billy as a main character allows the reader to share his confused and conflicting feelings about the violence and danger of the war, about redeployment, about his dysfunctional family, about people’s perception of war, and about his own desires and goals. Billy’s connection with Faison, a Dallas Cowboys cheerleader, and her interest in him helps solidify his thinking, but it is not enough to save him from his emotional and moral ties to Bravo Squad. The raucous half-time show—where the men are introduced—serves as a brutal reminder of the noise and chaos of war for the Squad; although deeply shaken, Billy recovers with Faison’s help. Yet, despite the possibility of love and family, guilt and loyalty force his choice to join Bravo Squad in re-deployment.

This is a sad novel in most ways. As a reader, you cannot help but be affected by the contrasting experience and situation of the returning “heroes” and those “at home” whom they represent in the war. While you wish only a happier outcome for them, you are also faced with the realization that they must return to violence, danger, and fear, and will be lucky to survive, both physically and emotionally. I think this novel is a valid representation of what it might be like to return to the US from any war, but at the same time it develops a particular character in Billy Lynn, a young man whom you like and admire. Ben Fountain’s novel was made into a movie in 2016. I would also recommend The Things They Carried by Tim O’Brien, based on his experiences in the Vietnam War, and the non-fiction Thank You for Your Service by David Finkel, a collection of real-life stories of soldiers returning from combat.

Juliet
by Anne Fortier

This 2010 New York Times bestseller follows Julie Jacobs and her four-minutes-younger-and-not-identical twin sister Janice who were raised by their Aunt Rose after the deaths of their parents in Italy. Their aunt was a woman of both style and substance, and the girls enjoyed a comfortable and rather privileged life, but growing into two opposed personalities. Janice is glamorous, sexy, and self confident, always seeking the spotlight, while Julie is somber, skinny, and virginal, preferring to remain in the background. When their aunt dies at 82, Julie is devastated, but Janice seems interested only in the value of her share of the estate. Accordingly, Janice is elated when Rose's will reveals that the entire estate is hers, leaving Julie out in the cold. Julie is both angered and flabbergasted by this turn of events; she expected to inherit at least half of her aunt's home and belongings. Soon, however, Umberto, Rose's long-time butler, hands Julie an envelope containing a letter, a passport, and a key. The letter explains that Julie's real name is Giulietta Tolomei, and the key fits a safety deposit box in a bank in Siena, Italy. Along with the passport in her real name, Umberto gives Julie her marching orders: it was her aunt's last wish for Julie to go to Italy and claim the family treasure. Julie's journey across the world and into the past involves her in a confusion of superstition, revenge, and greed. As she meets other descendants of her fourteenth century namesake Giulietta and her Romeo, Julie finds herself in danger, the target of an ancient curse and blood-feud. This is an entertaining book with a bit of mystery and suspense spiced up with some romance. Its connection to the Shakespeare play Romeo and Juliet is clever, and the plot suits the medieval city in which it is set. As a reader, you will like Julie and root for her; her happy ending is a little predictable, but the path to it is full of surprises. I enjoyed the book although the twists and turns and near escapes did reach the edge of too much, and while I liked the happy ending, it had a lot of tying-up-loose-ends. However, I wouldn't let that deter you from enjoying this original mystery novel.

Once again, please reach out to me if you would like recommendations on any particular type of book. If you choose to read one of my suggestions, I would love to hear your ideas about it. Finally, if you would be interested in a book club or even just a Facebook page to discuss books, I am willing to put either of these ideas in motion. carolbroberts43@gmail.com

The Tag Sale is our largest fund raiser for the Social Club. This event will be held on Friday February 15th (set up and residents shopping) and Saturday February 16th.

Residents are able to rent tables for $5.00, for selling their own items or you may donate things that are no longer treasures to you to the social club. There will be lunch for purchase on Saturday. All the information will be announced later, but, keep the tag sale in mind. Especially when considering what to do with your unwanted items. We will need lots of volunteers. Please watch for notices.

The new owners of 46 Eden are George and Carolyn Thompson from Muskegon, Michigan. They were introduced to our park when they visited with their very good friends, Herb and June Jourden of 8 Clubhouse Drive. Herb and June encouraged them to come to LST for the past 3 years. The Thompsons like the friendliness of the park residents and the numerous activities at LST.

George and Carolyn were high school sweethearts and have 2 sons and 4 granddaughters in Michigan. George's career after high school was being in the Air Force for 21 years. He was in aircraft maintenance and was stationed in many places including: Nebraska, Germany, Ki Sawyer in Gwinn, Michigan, Korea, Mississippi, and back to Michigan at Wurtsmith base. After the Air Force, George worked for General Electric Aviation as an Inspector.

Carolyn worked at the many Air Force bases in the Commissary and then after the Air Force, worked in banking. She retired from both careers.

Hobbies for George include: camping, fishing, hunting, and kayaking and for Carolyn, kayaking and walking. Kayaking in Florida is not on their list of things to do. They are not too fond of having alligators nearby. They are, however, enjoying the beautiful Florida weather.

The Thompson's anniversary is November 9th. George's birthday is October 28th and Carolyn's birthday is August 10th. Their phone number is 231-747-0781. Welcome to George and Carolyn Thompson.

The new owners of 69 Lake Griffin Drive are Buck (Jay) and Jody Ross. They moved here from Central Michigan east of Grand Rapids. Jody was originally from Upstate New York, but lived most of her life in Michigan. The Rosses were researching retirement communities in the Leesburg area to be near Jody's Aunt and Uncle, Gale and George Bagley. Gale is the sister to Jody's mom. They also wanted to be near a lake.

In March of 2018, they stayed for a week at Lakeside Terrace with Jody's cousins, Seth and Diane Bagley. The home at 69 Lake Griffin became available and they put in a bid for the home. They bought it and then moved here in May as full-timers.

They have enjoyed meeting their new neighbors this past summer at the park luncheons and holiday parties and the Toys for Kids Christmas Party.

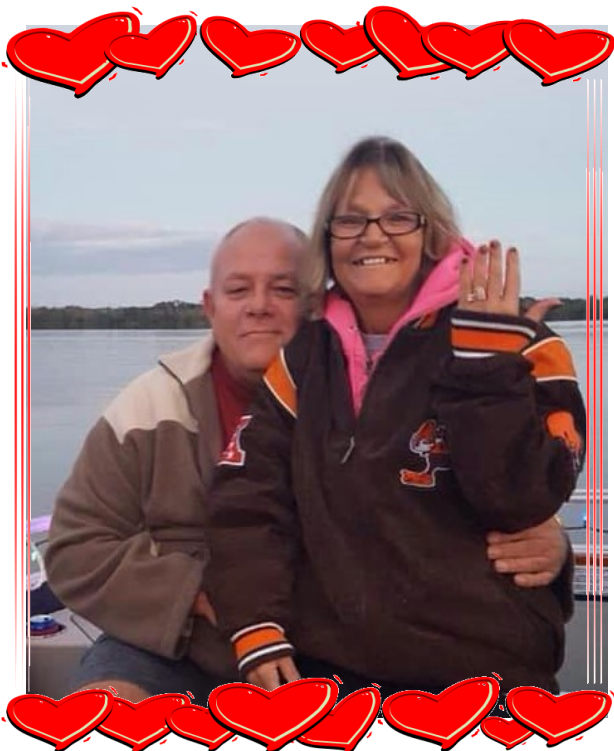

The Rosses are enjoying living at the marina. They both enjoy fishing and having a great view of the wildlife. Jody also enjoys cooking and gardening. They used to both enjoy hunting for deer and turkey in Michigan.

Buck's career has been in Shipping and Receiving for large companies and now is working in Wildwood in Shipping and Receiving for a plumbing company.

Jody retired from GM as a die welder and is working on updating their home at LST.

Buck has 3 grown children and 5 grandchildren ranging in age from 6 months to 6 years old back in Michigan.

Their birthdays are March 23 for Buck and June 15 for Jody. Their anniversary is November 19th. Their phone number is 352-314-2310. Welcome to Buck and Jody Ross.

Congratulations to Diane Henry & Darrell Diluzio on their Christmas Eve engagement!

Kathy Walden

Our Fall Session is over with Ten Pins-Gail and Dennis Hahn, Marla Holmes, and Wally Voelker winning the coveted prize. We start the Winter Session on Wednesday, January 2nd. The league is trying something different this time. We are going to play 9 Pin no-Tap for the entire 12 weeks. Remember that this is just a fun league and our new format should be more fun for all. We're hoping to get more people involved. Bowlers are still needed. Think about it!! There is camaraderie, lots of laughs, and even eating after if you so desire. What a great group of bowlers we have and we would love to have more of you join us. Just give me a call, drop by, or talk to one of other teammates. Happy New Year.

Thanks to Martha & Ron Grove and their team for a wonderful delicious Christmas Dinner. We had a great time and of course ate too much.

The Bear

Diana Grant

Being from Philadelphia, my exposure to the vast array of U.S. fauna was very limited. Like many of us, I had seen an assortment of animals at the zoo but, on a daily basis, cats, dogs and pigeons (aka flying rats) were as close to nature's wild kingdom as I got.

At age 45, I moved to the woods of the Pocono Mountains. It was a culture shock to say the least. There were no neighbors within walking distance and the closest quick mart was 5 miles away.

Upon settling into my new home, I found a frost covered roast of some sort in the otherwise empty freezer.. It had to be fairly old and didn't look like it could be salvaged. I put it in the outside trash can and didn't give it another thought. I assumed, like in the city, the trash was picked up daily. I was wrong.

The following morning, I sat in my new sun room sipping my first cup of coffee and out of the corner of my eye, I saw movement. My heart skipped a beat as I saw a black bear. He easily weighed 400 - 450 pounds. He ambled down to my trash can and took the lid off. He must have found the fragrance alluring. He lugged the can up to the area where I was sitting so, we were separated only by sliding glass doors. Then he sat down and started to go through every item within. He licked and bit at every piece. I assume he felt everything was edible until proven differently. He was fasinating to watch. There was something very calming about seeing such a giant creature relaxed and enjoying his meal.

Then he found the now defrosted roast. As he pulled the wrapper off the bloody hunk, he looked straight at me with an expression of delight and I swear I saw him smile!

He sat and held onto the meat with his giant claws, savoring each bite. When he finished he yawned and lumbered away his appetite sated.

There was garbage strewn around the area where he had been eating and I waited for over an hour to go out and clean up the mess.

On top of the mound of trash was a new, crisp ten dollar bill. Since, I am not in the habit of throwing money away; I could only assume the bear had left it.

Often we use rhetorical questions when we want to emphasis an affirmative. We have all heard someone say "Is the Pope Catholic?"

So, Ladies and Gentlemen, the moral of the story is "Bears do TIP in the woods". Yet, their table manners leave something to be desired.

Sewbirds

Debbie Porterfield

The Sew Birds meet at the clubhouse every Wednesday from 9:00 am to 2:00 PM. You don't need to come early or stay late just come when you want. Bring your sewing machine and your current project you are working on. If you are not currently a sewer and want to learn just come on up. We have several levels of sewers and we all are eager to help.

We have a potluck lunch at noon.

We are having a fundraiser breakfast coming up January 19th. Look for information and sign up sheet on the clubhouse board and in the Kiosks.

Jean McFerren & Bill Johnston

Now that the holidays are over, and things have settled down a bit you may be looking for a new and different volunteer opportunity. The Lake County Animal Shelter is always in need of volunteers. You can go online at leash-inlakecounty@gmail.com or call Leash at 352 340 3803. After attending an Orientation session on the first Saturday of the month at 9:00 am or the third Wednesday at 6:00 pm, you are then able to drop by the shelter at any time they are open, and you have available time. Dogs need to be walked and played with and both dogs and cats need socialization and cuddling. There is also a need for help doing the laundry, paperwork, greeting potential adopters, washing water and food dishes, etc. "L.E.A.S.H., Inc., (Love, Enrichment, Adoption, Shelter, Health) is the support group of wonderful, caring people who do the fund raising, adoption events, lost and found notices, etc. Another volunteer opportunity is the "Come As You Are" ministry for the homeless.

They accept food, clothing, financial help for rent to prevent a homeless situation and help in their kitchen serving two meals a day to those in need. Check out their website to see what all is available. So, the bottom line is – in this new year you can make life a little more pleasant for our homeless and less fortunate pets and people. You may drop any donated item(s) in my carport at 31 Lakewood Ln, and we will get them to the appropriate people and places. Some of the items needed are: Camping gear, warm clothing, blankets, sleeping bags, personal care items, socks, underwear, old towels, beds, dog toys, etc. for the shelter and the ministry. For more information or for a ride along with us, call Jean at 713 825 7181 or Bill at 619 247 3092 HAPPY VOLUNTEERING
